SPIDERS ENGAGE INDIANS
HERE IN HOLIDAY BATTLECAROLINA READY FOR VA.
TARHEEL TEAM IS GROOMED
FOR GRID CLASSIC TODAY

Richmond College and William and Mary Clash on Boulevard Gridiron This Afternoon.

BOTH TEAMS EXPECT VICTORY

Coaches Dobson and Driver Make Slight Changes in Line-Ups for Final Football Day of Season.

Rivalry Keen Between Elevens.

Richmond College Spiders and William and Mary Indians have the distinct privilege of performing on the Richmond gridiron today, Thanksgiving Day, which was formerly that of football days. In the annual holiday clash, staged between the University of Virginia and the University of North Carolina or the University of South Carolina and the University of Georgia, the State of Virginia has been the scene of a conflict between elevens of the Old Dominion and the New South since the 1890's.

A long distance message last night from the Williamsburg camp stated that Coach Driver's squad was in the pink of physical condition and ready to meet Coach Dobson's team this afternoon. From Westhampton last night also came a similar message, stating that the Spiders were in fine condition and ready for the Indians. Both elevens are confident of victory. Both are strong, and the outcome of the battle is not easy to predict.

Big Holiday Crowd Expected.

Out on Boulevard Field this afternoon a big crowd is expected to see the participants enter the ring. Followers of the Indians will be there from Williamsburg and alumnae of William and Mary from everywhere. Virginia, the great state of supremacy, will be on hand and alumnae from that institution will be along as supporters of their rivals.

The Tar Heel football squad of Randolph-Macon College will be the guests of the William and Mary management at the game and will lend their best efforts to see that the meeting ends in a victory. Likely to defeat the Spider aggregation in any contest this season, the Jackets would like to have sweet revenge through the medium of an Indian victory.

Baldwin Readjusts Back Field.

Stadium Field, Richmond College has surged this week with activity as the Spiders have prepared for this afternoon's battle with their keenest rivals. Baldwin has been most careful in readjusting his back field to meet the need put upon it by the injury of Full Back Lance. This was sent in the way the Red Blue had been beaten against Randolph-Macon last week and no fear is entertained in Spiders concerning the rear attack. Speed has aided the full back and Blane ship has recovered from his slight handicap, giving the Spiders their strongest back field for today's fray.

Jones, who is in command of quarters with Tew, is in readiness to use his toe should the play produce situations that demand a resort to a held toe. He has planned also for the two versatility of the ball to best advantage in shifting the back field. Ziegler, who has demonstrated powerful grand-slam ability, and who has borne the brunt of the back field work, will be in his place opposite Blackingshaw. Spencer is in good condition and should be ready for his long advances against the Williamsburgers in the last game here.

Dobson's line has not caused him any trouble all season with the exception of the first game against Randolph and Robins have been fighting for the position, with the latter drawing the assignment of the game today. O'Neal was unable to make the middle of the line by missing his place of pride. Shepherd will also be ready to attack through its center.

Two Changes in Indian Lineup.

With William and Mary showing strong, having welcomed several of its regulars back in the game, it is Johnstone who was dismalied from numbers against the back field affairs. The Turkey Day struggle will be fought with the Indians in the same manner as that which brought the Tigers their final championship game of the season.

During the past few days, Coach Driver has taken particular care of his back field and expects to score by drop kicks if his team finds the Spider line impregnable.

Both Teams Look for Victory.

Westhampton figures that their team will win but only by a small margin, the Williamsburg camp, Richmond College held the record. The account on Gary Field, when William and Mary was ever best, since then changes have been made, one being the defeat of the Indians by the Spiders in a large score several weeks ago. With the other decisive trouncing the Indians have received this year, changes have also resulted in both teams in their comparative strength and it will be interesting to see whether the Indians can recover from their injuries and return to early season form.

The local aggregation will be out in full swing to pull for the Spiders and will be augmented by a number of alumni who are attending the "Alumni Meeting" here this week. A dinner will be given to the Richmond College men at one of the noted from which they will go to the ball field in a body.

While there is nothing in the game for the Spiders, they are entering the contest feeling the enthusiasm of the other members of the Eastern Virginia League and completed a victory today over their recent opponents' ambition to whip them.

Officials of the game will be Morris, George Washington, referee; Appling, Michigan, umpire; and Harrison, Washington and Lee, head linesman.

Cured His RUPTURE

I was badly tortured while lifting a ton several years ago. Doctors said the only hope of cure was an operation. "Trustees did not go well." Finally I got hold of some herbs, had a good night's sleep and completely cured myself. Since then I have had no trouble. Although I am now bald, I have returned to my former business as a Carpenter. There was no operation, no trouble. I have nothing to say. If you are in trouble, get full information about herbs you may find a complete cure without operation. If you write me, Eugene Mariano, 1015 Columbia, 225½ Marquette Avenue, Milwaukee, I will let you know what are required—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.—Adv.

OTHER GAMES.

Chapel Hill, N. C., Nov. 26—Coached and groomed to the last detail of football play and prepared for the Thanksgiving Day game, the Chapel Hill players are now resting easy before the arrival of the Thanksgiving game with their ancient rivals from Virginia. The final practice Wednesday afternoon was no more than a dry run, the players being given time to signal drills. So far as football knowledge goes the Tarheels will win or lose on what they know now.

Watching them when they trot out on the field will be a treat to those who have been watching the game of football in the South. The Carolina, including the largest gathering of alumni old and young, that the university has ever known. The regular concrete stands, supplemented by giant steel bleachers, have swept in on the football management from all over the State and from many places outside the State.

Have Huge Cheering Section.

Solidly banked along the center of the field on the south side the Carolina rooting section, 1,200 strong, under the leadership of Chas. Cheek, leader, and his assistants will thunder forth in support of their team a varied assortment of songs and yells, including two new songs written for the occasion by Professors Duggett and Weaver. Universal regret has been expressed over the fact that the singing will be limited to the first half of the game.

The line-up of both teams will be as follows:
